

Reconciliation Matching Game

Laminatz and cut outstorz in bag

To tell our sins to the priest.
Another word for Reconciliation.

The little voice in our mind that tells us the difference between right and wrong. What we examine before we go to Reconciliation.

What the priest tells us to do to ask for forgiveness.

The man who we tell our sins to at church. He represents God to forgive to our sins.

The room we go into to meet with the priest to tell him our sins and ask for forgiveness.

When we look into our minds to determine the sins we have committed.

When we choose to do wrong
we commit these.

When we want to do something that is wrong, but we know we should not do it.
